Family Chat:

The theme today is about Healthy Families.

What are some things that are unique about your family?
What is something that only you guys know about each other?
(eg. 'remember that time Dad was trying to ride the skateboard and he fell and landed in the flower bed?! Or 'on Dec 1st every year we have a tradition of putting up a Christmas tree together, and getting pots and pans and singing and playing along to Christmas Carols til midnight'……that sort of thing!)

What do you think makes a 'healthy family'?

Have a look at GALATIANS 5:22 together, have a think about those 'fruit' and decide which ones you think you are best at as a family, and share some examples of why.

Then as a family, work out which 'fruit' could do with a bit of work in your family, and think of one thing you are all going to do to work on that fruit.

Also, read Galatians 6:2 together.

What do you think that verse has got to do with being a Healthy Family?

Prayer:

Sharing the each other's load is super-important as a family, particularly when someone in your family is having a struggle. Do you know what? It is also super-important to share in each other's joys and successes too! And taking all those things to God is also a really great thing to do together. He loves hearing from you!

Spend some time each sharing something you are excited or happy or filled with joy about and praise God for those things.
Then share something each that you are feeling worried or sad about or a 'burden' you are carrying, and pray together about those things. This will help you 'carry each other's burdens'.
