Family Chat:

The theme today is about

God being at the CENTRE of our Relationships

Read Genesis 1:27-31

What do you think Adam and Eve's relationship with God was like in the Garden of Eden at this point? (choose one answer below)

Bad

Ok

Pretty good

Perfect

What happened next? What went wrong between them and God?

And what happened to people's relationships with each other from then on?

If God's original plan was for us to have a healthy relationship with Him and with others, what can we do to help that happen?

Check out Proverbs 3:5-6 and Matthew 22:37-38 and John 15:5.

They might give you some ideas!

Prayer:

Pray together about how you as a family can keep God at the centre of your lives and at the centre of your relationships with each other and with other people too.

You might like to play darts together if you have a dartboard. You could play and pray at the same time! Each person has a turn to throw a dart, and then prays about something that would help them to keep God at the centre of their life.

If you don't have a dartboard – check out some ideas for target practice on the next page!

Activity Ideas:

If you don't have a dartboard, maybe you could set up another type of target practice (making sure to check with a grown up to be safe!):

Chalk Circles on the driveway, or Hoola Hoops. Find sponges or sandbags to toss and aim for the centre circle

Ping-Pong Games

- grab Plastic cups or Egg Cartons and line them up at one end of the table
- players stand at the other end of the table with ping pong balls
- Choose one cup/egg carton hole and mark it as the target
- Players bounce their balls, aiming to land their ball in the target cup/egg carton hole

Plastic Cup Stack Up

- Choose one cup in the middle and put a mark on it
- Stand behind a line and flick elastic bands at the stack, aiming for the centre cup with the mark on it

Quiet Time:

Colour in the dartboard, and jot down all the things you can do to help keep God at the centre of your life.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.

Matthew 22:37

May the GOD who gives YOU

endurance AND encouragement

give you the same Attitude

of mind Attitude

TOWARDS EACH other

that Jesus Christ had

Trust in the LORD
with all your heart and lean not on your understanding; in all ways acknowledge and He will your own your

Him direct paths.
